Certification: The forgoing financial statement (which includes all schedules and other information that may accompany the statement), is submitted to Cambridge State Bank for the purpose of obtaining credit, is true and correct in every material aspect and fairly shows my/our financial condition at the time indicated. I/We will give you prompt written notice of any subsequent material change in my/our financial condition occurring before discharge of my/our obligations to you. I/We understand that you will retain this financial statement whether or not you approve the credit in connection with which it is submitted. You are authorized to check my/our consumer credit report(s), employment history, and any other information contained herein.

Notice: The USA Patriot Act of 2001 requires all financial institutions to (a) verify and maintain information that identifies each person or entity that opens an account, including any deposit account, loan account, or other financial services product, and (b) consult lists of known or suspected terrorists or terrorist organizations to determine if the person or entity seeking to open an account appears on any such lists. We will ask for the applicant's name, tax payer identification number, residential or business address, and other information that will allow us to reasonably identify the applicant. We will also ask, if applicant is an individual, to see the applicant's driver's license or other identifying documents, and if applicant is not an individual, to see applicant's legal organizational documents or other identifying documents.

Notice: We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.
